Reason/Justification for Rule Change (provide brief description)

Currently there is no class description for AMHR Sunday in the Park, judges and exhibitors have no criteria for presentation in the class which is held both at Nationals and local shows and has resulted in a hodgepodge of over decorated carts and attire.

Sunday In the Park:

1. To be shown to a modern-day viceroy or suitable vehicle representing any historical era of driving.
2. To be judged 50% on turnout of viceroy or suitable vehicle and driver attire. Vehicle turnout can be decorated in an appropriate Sunday in the Park theme with appointments and floral arrangements but not so many as to distract from the overall presentation.
3. Acceptable women's attire for afternoon classes is summery type dress with hat in attire appropriate for the era the vehicle represents. Judges are welcome to converse with drivers and check/sample any fare from picnic baskets provided headers are present to attend the horse.
4. Gentleman afternoon attire shall be a sports coat of any color except black, attire must be appropriate for the era the vehicle represents. Bow ties to match the sports coat and appropriate hats.
5. Evening ladies' attire shall be formal length, parasol is optional but cannot be held or open while driving. Parasol can be opened in line-up provided a header is present. Evening gentlemen attire shall be formal dinner jacket, ruffled or tucked white shirt or color. Formal jacket to be suitable or black suitable material to include but not limited to brocade or velveteen. Trousers of black, dark blue or midnight blue. Formal bowtie, black socks and shoes and dress hat.
6. To show all-around action at a Park Trot and not faster. Must stand quietly and must back easily. To be judged on manners, quality and performance.
7. Attendant/header can be available during line-up, but if a parasol is used and opened an attendant/ header must be present. If no attendant/header and parasol is opened entry will be disqualified. This is a safety factor
