Rules and Regulations

GENERAL RULES

AMHR Nationals will run under the rules set forth in the ASPC/AMHR Rulebook, current revision. All persons are notified that any misconduct or disobedience to the judges or show officials by exhibitors, trainers, or any other person associated with exhibitor shall be cause for disqualification. In such cases, all entry fees shall be forfeited.

ENTRIES

ONLINE ENTRIES (shetlandminiature.com)

If you are using the online entry portal, you MUST have a credit card on file, paypal is available or checks MUST be in the office by July 15th or entries will be considered late.

Exhibitors are requested to file their entries as soon as possible before entries close.

ENTRIES MUST BE POSTMARKED ON OR BEFORE July 15, 2024. PAYMENT MUST ACCOMPANY ENTRIES – If payment is not received with entries there is a penalty fee. *See A/R policy.

Entries can be made up to 7 days (postmarked) after the closing date, with a $100.00 late fee assessment charged per horse/per day. Any entry postmarked on the 8th day past closing date of the show will not be accepted.

Exhibitors MUST be current members of the ASPC by the closing date of entries!

All exhibitors who wish to be stalled together must send their entries together in one envelope. There are no guarantees for stalling, however show management will try their best to accommodate requests.

QUALIFICATIONS

2023/2024 Rulebook – Page 335-337

All horses MUST be registered by the opening date of the AMHR National Show.

All foal registration paperwork MUST be in the National Office and postmarked 30 days prior to the start of Nationals.

Horses MUST have been shown at sanctioned AMHR shows under a total of 4 Judges and 2 or more locations.

To qualify for the AMHR National Show, the Youth and Miniature horse entered MUST have shown together under 2 judges prior to the National Show.

In addition, the horse MUST also qualify as normal for AMHR Nationals.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All equine on the premises for exhibition, sale or delivery, must be accompanied by an official health certificate issued within 30 days prior to the show dates. Showing them to be free of symptoms of contagious and infectious diseases or known exposure thereto. All equine on the premises must be tested and show negative for EIA by the Coggins test within 12 months prior to show dates. Test to be conducted at a federally approved laboratory with the date of test and name of laboratory shown on the health certificate. Original Coggins certificate must be verified at time of check in at show office. Suckling foals under 6 months of age accompanied by their dams are exempt from the test.

MEASUREMENT TIMES

Measurement of horses will begin Wednesday, September 4, 2024 at 8:00 AM. Additional measurement times will be posted. Note: All AMHR Miniature Horses, including foals of current year who DO NOT possess a validated, permanent Card of the current year MUST be measured at Nationals.

Exhibitors MUST pick up a measurement card for each pony in the show office. At the time of measurements, the exhibitor is required to present to the steward the original registration paper of the animal or a photo copy of the same, and the pony (free of blanket, hood, neck wrap and tail set) for a measurement. All measurements may be video recorded. No back number will be released until all necessary measurements have been completed. Once a back number is issued, you may not re-measure unless there is a protest.

MEASURING PROTOCOL

1. One set of papers/one pony/one handler within the measuring area.
 - a. No electronic copies of papers (phone, computer etc.) are permitted. Paper copies only.
 - b. No notebooks or binders are permitted to be in the measuring area. Only papers for pony being measured are allowed in the measuring area.
 - c. Additional ponies are not allowed to congregate in the ally way where the line for measuring is formed. i.e., Entryway to measuring box or location

2. Handler is not allowed to have multiple ponies queued up in line. The handler and the pony just measured will exit immediately following completion of the measurement. Any exchange of pony/handler will be outside the measuring area.
3. Ponies are measured by the next available Steward.
 - a. No one is allowed to “wait for” or “request” a specific Steward to measure their horse.
 - b. Remeasurement to be handled in the same fashion. The next available Steward will complete the remeasure.
 - c. One of the other Stewards may act as a “spotter” to ensure that the pony being measured is positioned correctly.
4. Spectators are allowed to watch from outside of the designated measuring area, however:
 - a. No comments or gestures allowed
 - b. Any perceived attempt to intimidate an exhibitor or Steward will result in the spectator being asked to leave and not allowed back to spectate for the duration of the show.

HEIGHT PROTEST

Once Show Officials have followed the rules for measuring the pony and the pony has been measured, or verified the height from the permanent height card submitted, the measurement becomes the official height for that show and CANNOT be protested once that pony enters the ring. The height of the pony will be posted by 6:00pm evening before pony enters ring. If any pony is shown where measurement is not posted unless through show management error in accordance with above, its height can be protested up to one hour after the class is completed.

Paddock Procedure

Exhibitors must check in with the paddock. The paddock will call exhibitors to enter the arena in their posted order of go. Only the exhibitors in the class that immediately follows the class in the arena will be allowed in the paddock area. If needed, a handler may be permitted in the paddock area for youth and amateur classes. Barn calls are a courtesy and will be made for each class. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to report to their class on time.

Gate Rule

A two-minute gate rule will be enforced. After the final call for a class has been given, the gate will be closed in two-minute, and no late participants will be accepted. Barn calls are made as a courtesy. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to be aware of the progression of the show and be ready for their class when it enters the arena. No refunds for missed classes

Patterns

Patterns will be posted at the back gate and show office only. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to check the boards before their class starts.

Intent to Show

The show office may require an intent to show form be completed by each exhibitor in certain driving classes. It is the duty of the exhibitor to find out if such form is necessary for their class and complete it accordingly. This is to help management determine class sizes for possible splits. There will be a $50.00 fine for an exhibitor failing to comply with this requirement.

Commencement and Completion of Classes

- A. In classes where horses compete collectively, a warning is issued and the in-gate must be closed two minutes after the first horse enters the ring.
- B. The gate person will give a two-minute warning before the gate is closed. Once the gate is closed it will not be opened until the class is completed.

- C. Judging must not commence until the gate is closed or at the end of the two-minute call. An official timer must be appointed to enforce this rule.
- D. In a class where horses compete individually, a class is considered completed when all horses have completed the class routine as designated by the rules.
- E. In classes where horses compete collectively, a class is considered completed when the class has been judged in accordance with the rules and the judge(s) submit their cards to the ringmaster or announcer.
- F. None of the above applies to the Jumper division

Vendors

No vendors are allowed to utilize stalls in the barns. All vendors must have a signed contract with the Show Office.

Discipline

Exhibitors are advised that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the officials of this show on the part of the owner, lessee, trainer, groom, rider, driver, handler or member of the family of the person participating in the show will disqualify the pony from adjudication. The management reserves the right to remove any horse, owner, lessee, trainer, groom, rider, driver, handler, or member of the family of the person participating in the show from the show grounds without being liable for compensation of damages.

Special Rules
