Add: Disqualification to the end of section, so that it reads In the tradition of western stock show ring, excessive clipping, razoring or balding of the face, muzzle and eyes or grooming to simulate razoring or balding shall be a disqualification.

Reason:

Horses that are not of type or are being present in a manner that is not of standards of said type should not be placing over a horse in the class that is of type or being presented in accordance to the written standards of the class.
