

ASPC/AMHR/ASPR Registry Queen or Ambassador Program Guidelines

Objective:

The purpose of the ASPC/AMHR/ASPR Royalty Program is to provide an opportunity for a young person to serve for one year as an official registry representative. The Registry Queen or Ambassador will represent the organization as a whole. The representative will act as a goodwill ambassador, doing public relations for the ASPC/AMHR/ASPR, and breed promotion for Moderns, Classics, Miniatures, and Show Ponies. The Royalty program will be administered by the Royalty Committee.

Qualifications:

The ASPC/AMHR/ASPC Registry Queen or Ambassador:

- ❖ Must be an ASPC/AMHR/ASPR member in good standing between the ages of 17 and 23.
  - Must be at least 17 years old and may not exceed 23 years old before December 1st of the application year.
  - All contestants must have never married nor had children.
- ❖ Must exhibit strong communication and leadership skills.
- ❖ Must exhibit a genuine interest in the ASPC/AMHR/ASPC industry.
- ❖ Must be willing to travel to out-of-state functions.
- ❖ Must submit a completed application per the below specifications.
- ❖ May only serve one year.

Application Process:

Candidates must postmark their royalty portfolio to the coordinator no later than May 1.

- ❖ Supply additional information upon request.

Responsibilities:

- ❖ Attend 2 National Conventions – The Queen or Ambassador will be introduced at the royalty committee meeting. Coronation will take place during the annual banquet. The incoming and outgoing royalty will help hand out Hall of Fame plaques at the Hall of Fame breakfast. The representative may be given additional responsibilities at convention.

- ❖ Attend own Area National Show, ASPC Congress and the AMHR Nationals –Plan, promote, and carryout an activity for all youth at the event. Some example activities are photo with the queen or ambassador, trivia game, craft activity, etc. Required to be at the show for a minimum of one complete day. While you are there, half of your time should be spent in the ring presenting awards (strongly suggested championship classes). The rest of the time you should walk through the barns and introduce yourself to show officials, registry officials, show staff and management and any other official dignitary. Watch for the opportunity to assist with event related activities. Examples: youth table and show office
- ❖ 3 other appearances - The representative must make at least three other appearances at events representing the registry. Some examples of events are sales, horse fairs, county or state fairs, meetings, youth events, or interviews. The representative must show documentation of participation to the royalty coordinator.
- ❖ Promotion and Communication – The representative needs to be knowledgeable about the ASPC/AMHR/ASPR Registry and all the breeds that it represents. The representative will professionally communicate verbally and written on behalf of the registry.
- ❖ Lady-like and Gentlemen-like Manner – The Registry Queen or Ambassador will at all times be governed by the Registry Queen or Ambassador code of conduct and dress. The Queen or Ambassador needs to remember that at all times they are role models for other youth in the industry.
- ❖ Royalty Committee – The committee reserves the right to immediately remove Royalty from their designated reign. The member of Royalty will disqualified from any future privileges and compensation. The member is also required to repay all monetary amounts in full to the ASPC/AMHR/APSR. All crowns/belt buckles and sashes must also be returned. Failure to complete any required activity may result in the same.
- ❖ Biography – Submit and professional biography and photograph to the Royalty Coordinator and Journal Editor by January 1st.
- ❖ Three Journal Columns – In the February/March issue (deadline January 1st), brief introduction (not biography) and explain your plans and goals for the year. In the August/September issue (deadline July 1st), update the members on what you have done and what is yet to come. In the December/January (deadline November 1st), write about your reign, experiences and farewell. The royalty committee encourages you to submit additional columns. The additional columns will be published as time and space permits. The Journal editor reserves the right to edit all submitted material.

Compensation/Travel Allowance:

- ❖ All monetary amounts depend on final board approval of the ASPC/AMHR Royalty budget.
- ❖ Professional crown or belt buckle and sash
- ❖ $750 Expense money ($150 for each appearance 2 Conventions, Area Show, ASPC Congress, and AMHR Nationals)
- ❖ $750 gift card on completion of all responsibilities.
- ❖ As long as, royalty (family) does not exhibit they will be reimbursed for hotel and travel expenses at Shetland Congress and Miniature Nationals. Hotel expense will be paid up to $300 for Shetland Congress and $350 for Miniature Nationals. Travel and hotel expenses will be paid for both National Conventions.
